

House rule

for the Bremen long-distance bus terminal (FBT)

Due to contractual agreements with the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen as the property owner and owner of the transport facility, BREPARK GmbH, Ansgaritorstraße 16, 28195 Bremen operates the Bremen long-distance bus terminal, hereinafter FBT. BREPARK GmbH issues the following house rules for the long-distance bus terminal.

Commandments

- Emergency exits and escape routes, entrances and exits and bus platforms must be kept clear.
- Facilities to ensure accessibility (guide systems for the blind, ramps, etc.) must be kept clear.
- Noise nuisance, especially at night must be avoided.
- Waste must be disposed of in the containers provided.
- Dogs must be kept on a leash.

Bans

The following are/are prohibited:

- Leaving luggage unattended. In the event of grossly negligent or intentional behavior, the costs arising from the safety measures taken may be imposed on the passenger.
- to contaminate the grounds and premises of the long-distance bus terminal (e.g. waiting room). Costs for the removal of intentionally caused contamination will be borne by the person responsible.
- Misuse or misuse emergency call, operational or security equipment.
- to ride bicycles, inline skates, skateboards, e-scooters or similar means of transport in the FBT buildings and on the bus platforms.
- use explosive substances, open fires (including candles) or foul-smelling substances.
- Smoking outside the designated smoking areas. The smoking ban also includes electronic cigarettes and heated tobacco devices.
- Search trash containers and/or collect bottles.
- Harassing and/or begging passengers, drivers and other customers.
- Excessive drinking, dealing or using drugs.
- Ball games on the area of the long-distance bus terminal and in the associated rooms.
- Allow animals to run free.
- Gambling on the premises of the long-distance bus terminal and the associated premises.
- spending the night on the premises of the long-distance bus terminal or in the associated rooms.
- the spread of violent, racist, xenophobic and anti-Semitic slogans.
- to label, paint or otherwise damage structures, facilities and paths.

Only with prior approval/consent from the operator are permitted:

- The sale or distribution of goods or other commercial activities.
- Promotions, distributing and displaying flyers, leaflets, posters or similar.
- Playing loud music, live music, concerts or similar.
- Surveys, signature campaigns and collection campaigns.
- Photo, film and television recordings for commercial or propaganda purposes.